

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us!
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

The rebel conscription has taken almost the whole southern male population from their farms, and the southern papers seem now to be fully awakened to the fact that positive famine, absolute starvation, is to be added to all the other horrors of war in their section. Nothing but the speedy closing up of the rebellion can save the millions of men, women and children of the southern confederacy from as horrible a fate as ever befell any people.—Louisville Journal.

The mode of warfare adopted by some of our generals is the most effective to continue the rebellion which could be devised. Northern soldiers are detailed by the thousand to do for us the labor slaves perform for the rebels; hundreds more are stationed as guards over the property of men who have been active in inciting the rebellion, and in withdrawing the male population from home and peaceful pursuits; and when women and children are left destitute because all the male members of the family are in the rebel army fighting us, we are appealed to send provisions and clothing to the poor sufferers, so that the return of the men to their families may be unnecessary and the strength of the rebel army may remain unimpaired. Are we not a generous and a more than quaker enemy? In the prosecution of the good work of reclaiming our "erring brethren" by kindness, let the entire property of the north be taxed to pay the rebels' expenses of the war and compensate them for the destruction of their business and loss of personal conveniences. Then let an appropriation be made from the federal treasury to pay for the cotton, molasses and sugar burned by the patriotic secessionists, and perhaps after this, and a congressional enactment protecting all the asserted "rights" of slavery, Jeff. Davis will return to his seat in the United States senate, Floyd will accept another cabinet appointment, Brockbridge will preside over the deliberations of northern senators, Gen. Lee will consent to re-occupy his estate on Arlington Heights, and the delectable women and chivalric men of the south who have fattened on the government and controlled its policy will fill Washington once more and give laws to the Union while restoring the refined society from which they have been temporary exiles.

That is the "conservative" treatment of the case.

Legislative.

FRIDAY, JUNE 13.
In the SENATE the resolution of the Assembly prolonging the session was laid on the table.
A bill amending the law in relation to the re-assessment of taxes in the city of Beloit was passed. Several other local bills were passed.
Senator Haselton made a motion to refer so much of the tax bill as relates to railroads to a select committee of five, to report thereon as early as practicable.—Lost, 13 to 14, and the bill went into committee of the whole.

In the ASSEMBLY, the bill appropriating $15,000 to Carpenter and Hyer was again up, on the motion to reconsider, amended by making the appropriation $10,000, and then ordered to a third reading, ayes 60, noes 43.
How a DANE CO. BOY WAS KILLED.—Col. Pinkney relates that he was marching near private Andrew Johnson, of the Dane Co. Guards, in the 3rd regiment, on the retreat through Winchester, when a small hand, doubtless that of a woman, appeared from a window and fired a pistol, the ball from which went close behind Col. Pinkney's back and killed Mr. Johnson. The next company that came up, fired a volley at the house, riddling it with balls. Wherever any body was hurt they did not stop to inquire.

CHICAGO TO BE MADE A GENERAL WESTERN DEPOT FOR THE EXCHANGE OF PAROLED UNION PRISONERS.—From the tenor of dispatches received from the war department, yesterday, (says the Chicago Journal of last evening,) by Captain Christopher, U. S. A., it is inferred that Chicago is to be made a general western depot for the exchange of paroled Union prisoners. If this is really the case, the entire brigade of General Prentiss, captured at Shiloh and subsequently paroled, will be mustered there for pay and exchange. The dispatch reads as follows:
"Must all paroled prisoners for pay as fast as they present themselves. Far enough those exchanged for twenty days. Furlough all others until exchanged. Send to this office for descriptive lists."

The Louisville Journal—which used to be bitterly opposed to "invading" and "coercing" the revolted states—having had a good taste of rebel tactics in Kentucky, thus talks:
"It is just as well that men should reflect whether that freedom of speech which rejoices in this rebellion had as well be voluntarily dropped before it is forcibly suppressed. We cannot afford to live any longer in the midst of lawlessness, robbery and murder, under the pretext of southern rights, or any other sort of rights."

The restriction on newspaper correspondents in the west would seem to have been removed. The Provost Marshal at Pittsburg writes to a gentleman in Cincinnati: "I am in correspondence to Corinth, or any where they wish to go."

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Since the 27th of May we have been constantly on the move, not seeing a tent, and for two days having scarcely anything to eat. We were in the battle of Corinth on the 28th, and General Stanley says was the day. I don't think a regiment ever fought better. We totally destroyed the 5th Tennessee; what we did not kill we either wounded or took prisoners. Our position was behind a hill, and they advanced up the hill; we never fired a shot until they came within eight rods of us, and then the entire regiment raised and let them have it. Not a man fell back. I was acting Major and had an opportunity to see the whole left wing, and not a man left his position until the field was cleared. The 6th Minnesota fell back considerably on our left, and had it not been for the 8th Wisconsin we would have lost a battery of six guns. Our regiment was ordered to charge up the hill, and the rebels left the guns. To give you a small idea of the music we had, the battery of our regiment supported fired, in two hours, 800 rounds, while on our right and left the music was full as charming. The battery in front of us had five horses killed from one gun at one shot. The Captain thinking he might lose his gun, unharmed one of the dead horses and put in his own, and drawing the gun in a safe position, began to distribute grapes again.

I cannot tell you how many we lost in killed and wounded; but the reserve suffered the most, the enemy's shells exploding beyond our lines. I had one man wounded in my company, David Harvey; a ball passed through his thigh, not fatal. Lieutenant Sargeant was in command of the company, and acted like a hero. Orderly Croft you would think was hunting pigeons. All the men fought bravely and deserve credit. I hope you will get a strict and true account from some correspondent. I don't think Illinois soldiers fired a gun this time, although some of them suffered severely by the shells exploding among them. Mentioning Illinois men, I think the 47th did have a hand in on the left of our brigade. Colonel Murphy is in command of the brigade. Lieutenant Colonel Robbins is sick, which throws me in command of the regiment. We are crowding the rebels, and leave here to-night in pursuit. The whole army is moving. Deserters are coming in constantly. Lots of rebels were sitting by the road side who had given out. They blew up their magazines and burned the depots and cars on their retreat.

One of my men died last week, A. M. Johnson, of Rutland. The rest of my men are pretty well; Lieutenant King is yet sick. Hoping we may escape the sickness prevailing in the army, and get home safe,

I am, yours, &c.,

W. B. BRITTON.

Third Wisconsin Cavalry.

The following has been issued by Colonel Barstow:
PROVOST MARCHAL GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Leavenworth, June 13, 1862.
The various squadrons of the 3d regiment Wisconsin cavalry volunteers are hereby ordered to march at the earliest practicable moment to their respective destinations, as follows:
1st Battalion, Major E. A. Calkins.
Company A, Captain Dammon, to Elwood and Troy, Doniphan county. Capt. Dammon will be acting deputy provost marshal in the county of Doniphan.
Company G, Captain Moore, to Shawnee town, county of Johnson.
Company B, Captain Johnson, will remain in the city of Leavenworth, and will occupy the camp now known as Camp Derry, as soon as vacated.
Company L, Captain Derry, will occupy the most eligible site in the vicinity of Aubury and Cold Water Grove, Johnson Co. Captain Derry will be acting Deputy Provost Marshal in the county of Johnson.
2d Battalion, Major B. S. Henning, comprising company "C," Captain Stevens, company "I," Captain Conkey, company "F," Captain Vittum, and company "M," Captain Rouse, will proceed to Fort Scott, such portion of this force as may be necessary to protect the public peace will be detached and sent to Mine Creek Trading Post, Lyon county. Major B. S. Henning, of 2d Battalion, is hereby appointed Deputy Provost Marshal of the district of Fort Scott.

A military commission for the trial of offences against the laws to sit at Fort Scott will be hereafter designated.
3d Battalion, Major Schroelling.
Company D, Captain Shaw, at Atchinson, county of Atchinson. Captain Shaw will act as Deputy Provost Marshal in the county of Atchinson.
Company K, Captain Off, will remain in the city of Leavenworth, and will occupy the same known as Camp Derry, as soon as the same is vacated.
Company H, Captain Stout, and company B, Captain David, will remain at Fort Leavenworth.
The quartermaster will make all preparation for the necessary transportation, subsistence and forage.
Each battalion and squadron on their departure will report at headquarters in front of the Esplanade, for inspection and review, and for special orders.

WM. A. BARSTOW,
Col. Commanding and Provost Marshal Gen'l.

Major Henning gives notice that all letters, papers, &c., for the 2d battalion, 3d regiment Wisconsin cavalry, will be directed as heretofore, "Leavenworth City," and will be forwarded from there to the proper destination by the regimental postmaster.

BREAD CONTRACT.—At the letting of army contracts at Louisville, last Wednesday, a contract was awarded to H. B. Ring, of the Chicago Mechanical Bakery, to furnish 400,000 pounds of bread, at $3.75 per one hundred pounds.
PRESIDENT DAVIS.—We have been reliably informed that many of his official position among us—men of high intelligence, but of mistaken and misguided patriotism, are sowing the seeds of discord and anarchy in our midst, by preaching a crusade against President Davis, and calling for a general convention of the Confederate States, to depose him and create a military dictator in his place!—Charleston Mercury.

The restriction on newspaper correspondents in the west would seem to have been removed. The Provost Marshal at Pittsburg writes to a gentleman in Cincinnati: "I am in correspondence to Corinth, or any where they wish to go."

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, June 13.
Dispatches from Gen. Halleck, dated the 12th, 7 p. m., have been received at the war department.
Beauregard is reported to have been at the remains of his army on Saturday last. Spies and deserters represent the rebel army greatly demoralized, mutinous and deserting.
The regiments which refused to serve after their time of enlistment expired, have been disarmed, and large numbers of them shot.
The immense destruction of valuable stores proves that the retreat of the rebels was a hurried one. Half-burned locomotives and cars were found in places where they would not have been left if the enemy had been making a contemplated and prepared retreat. The rebel army has stripped of food the whole country south of Corinth, and many of the inhabitants are in a starving condition.

New York, June 13.
A letter from the army of the Potomac to the New York Evening Post, gives a camp rumor that an Irish regiment tried to desert from the rebel lines yesterday, and reached Mechanicsville bridge, but ran after a few shots from our picket guard, and they are now under guard.
Letters to the Philadelphia Press state that deserters arriving report that a great number of anxious people reach our lines, not only North Carolinians, but from every rebel state.

WASHINGTON, June 13.
A Baltimore slave-trader, who is largely engaged in the traffic in human flesh, testified before the emancipation commission yesterday that slaves are scarce nothing in the market. The negroes are running so fast that their value sensibly depreciates. A bureau of emigration is talked of here, with Eli Thayer at its head.

WASHINGTON, June 13.
For several days past secession rumors have prevailed that the Monitor, and two other of our vessels had been captured by the enemy, above Fort Darling, and the names of distinguished gentlemen are unauthoritatively mentioned in their support; but there is such positive information as shows that the reports have not a shadow of foundation. Such an occurrence is impossible.

WASHINGTON, June 13.
Special to the Evening Post.—Mr. Pierce, government superintendent of the cotton lands in South Carolina, arrived here this morning. He left Charleston harbor on Tuesday and brings the latest intelligence from the federal expedition under General Benham. Our forces have occupied James Island, under the protection of our gunboats. The Confederate forces in Charleston had been greatly augmented. Deserter stated that 30,000 men from Beauregard's Corinth army had reached there within a few days, and that every preparation was making for a stubborn defence of the city. When Mr. Pierce left, it was the opinion of Commodore Dupont that our attack could not safely proceed until we had a stronger force. There was heavy firing from the enemy during a part of Tuesday, but no apprehension of danger from an attack upon our troops.

WASHINGTON, June 13.
The following was received at the war department:
HEADQUARTERS MOUNTAIN DEPARTMENT,
Harrisburg, June 10.
TO HON. R. M. STANTON, Secretary of War:
In my dispatch of yesterday I omitted to state that Col. Crocker's brigade, consisting of the 69th Ohio and 8th Virginia, afterwards supported by the 2d and 3d Iowa, formed our advance and commenced the battle of Cross Keys with sharp skirmishing at two o'clock in the morning. During the day they obtained possession of the enemy's ground, which was disputed foot by foot, and only withdrew at evening when ordered to retire to a suitable position for the night. The skill and gallantry displayed by Col. Crocker on this and frequent former occasions during the pursuit in which we have been engaged, deserve high praise.

JOHN O. FREMONT,
Major General.

New York, June 13.
The steamer British Queen, with Havana dates to the 7th, and Nassau dates of the 9th, arrived this evening. News from Mexico of the 1st inst. confirms the defeat of the French troops by the Mexicans, 500 of the French being killed and 700 taken prisoners. The latter were released, as there was not food enough to feed them. The Mexicans were actively fortifying the capital, and the French will march against the reinforcements arriving. The steamers were current in Havana that the designs of the French are not so much against Mexico as against the United States.—Great dissatisfaction exists among the French officers, leading to appeals to Napoleon.
The English minister has concluded a treaty with Doblado, and it is said that Ceballos, agent of Gen. Prim, has also concluded a ratification of the Alamoite treaty. Saragosa has a force of 14,000 men, and Ortega was expected in Mexico with 8,000 more. Recruits are coming in from all points. Marquises is in Vera Cruz, and was about imposing a forced loan on foreign merchants. It was supposed that the English Admiral would protest, though some thought he would not, as it might displease the French.

WASHINGTON, June 13.
The rumor set afloat by the rebels in Washington that the Monitor was captured had its foundation in the capture by the Rebels of our flotilla, on James river of a schooner named Monitor.
The government has seized several secession churches here for hospital uses. They are: Trinity, Dr. Syle, rectory; Ascension, Dr. Pinkney; Epiphany, Dr. Hall—three, then, are Episcopal, the fourth is Presbyterian.
The Department of Mississippi is extended so as to include the whole of the states of Tennessee and Kentucky. All officers on duty in these states will report to Major General Halleck.

The Mountain Department extends eastward to the road running from Williamsport to Martinsburg, Winchester, Strasburg, Harrisburg, and Staunton, including that place, thence in the same direction southward until it reaches the Ridge Chain of Mountains, thence with Blue Ridge to the southern boundary of the state of Virginia. The Department of the Shenandoah is extended eastward to include Piedmont District and Bull Mountain range.
Important general orders have been issued. One restores the volunteer recruiting service, and orders invalid and disabled officers to that duty, and orders to their regiments about soldiers fit for duty. Another authorizes the governors of states to give them certificates for transportation. Another orders captains to report the kind and efficiency of arms used by their companies. Another discharges medical officers held as prisoners, the principle being recognized that medical officers should not be held as prisoners of war.
Another order recalls to duty all absent officers able to travel—those fit for active service to their regiments, others to Annapolis or Camp Chase, Ohio—and lays down stringent regulations upon the whole subject of absences.

Another order provides for the disposal of rebel property captured by the provost marshal—the same to be turned over to the chief of staff, to be used for the public service, and strictly accounted for.

WASHINGTON, June 11.
This evening's Star has the following:—
"We have information that after his battle with Fremont on the 8th inst., Jackson made a sudden dash on Shields' advance, which was hurrying up from the direction of Luray to Fremont's assistance. He worsted Shields' advance somewhat in that affair. He then immediately resumed his retreat, quitting the road to Staunton, and burning the Port Republic bridge in his rear; thus, for the time being, putting an effectual stop to pursuit of him, it is highly probable. He is evidently retreating immediately on Charlottesville. What his next move will be it is hard indeed to tell. If he anticipates that Fremont will follow him, he will probably make a stand at Charlottesville, to save the Lynchburg and Tennessee railroad connection; and there, or he may launch off to Richmond, where the pressure of his force would doubtless be greeted with delight by the besieged rebel army and capital; or, again, he may strike for the vicinity of Fredericksburg, in the hope of hanging on and annoying the flank of any Union force that may make for Richmond from that quarter.
WASHINGTON, June 13.
Special to Chicago Tribune.—The Dakota arrived at Fort Monroe yesterday, bringing dispatches from Flag Officer Farragut, who was at New Orleans when she left on the 2d of June. He went to Vicksburg in the Richmond but returned without attacking that place, having left a number of gunboats as a blockading squadron.
The town is in reach of our guns, but is rather high above the river. It will be captured before many days.
We are fired on several times by musketry from the banks of the river, going up stream, and he is of the opinion that the war on the Mississippi will hereafter be in this way.
New Orleans was quiet. Some fifteen or twenty officers have been sent home by Flag Officer Farragut for habitual drunkenness.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, June 14.
The following has been received here from the Tribune correspondent with Gen. McDowell's forces:
MANASSAS, June 13.
A report has just reached here that a guerrilla party numbering 150, dashed into Warrenton last Monday evening, captured 22 sick soldiers left in the hospital, and 25 to 30 stragglers from Gibbon's brigade in King's division. Small guerrilla squads have been seen to day in the neighborhood of Annullville, and Major Duffy has gone out to capture them.

WASHINGTON, June 14.
Times Dispatch.—We have information, derived from secession sources here, that 6 North Carolina regiments refused to go to the battle of Fair Oaks, and these regiments are now under a strong guard in Richmond.
Gov. Bradford and Ex-Gov. Hicks, of Maryland, are both said to favor a special session of the legislature, to take into consideration the president's emancipation message.

New York, June 14th.
A letter to the Times from the army says: The Richmond Dispatch of the 7th contains an editorial the tenor of which is most discouraging to the rebel army. The writer fears that our design is not to engage them in battle, but to starve them out; a plan which he considers not impossible for us to accomplish.
A letter of the 10th says that deserters arrived from Richmond last night, bringing intelligence that the rebels are residually at work throwing up additional earthworks around the city. They have also dug earth works and rifle pits along the route between here and Richmond, and have mounted a large number of guns. The rebel troops are kept on short rations, the daily supply of each man amounting to but one pound of flour, and half a pound of bacon, without coffee, tea, sugar, salt, &c.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.
MEMPHIS, June 12.
Monday's Mobile papers contain Richmond dispatches claiming a glorious victory for Jackson over Fremont on Sunday. They also state that Jackson captured two pieces of artillery from Shields.
Rebel accounts of the affair at Chatanooga say the enemy opened batteries with shot and shell on the city without giving the slightest notice, creating panic among women and children, who fled in every direction. Some rebels were wounded, none killed, and but one building struck. Secession sympathizers are becoming more bold in daily expressing their sentiments. Union troops are in the city. Col. Mitchell's rule over the city is lenient, and that until assured of better protection they cannot avow their sentiments. The provost marshal requires an oath from all applicants for passes, or permits to slip goods.

The stringency of his requirements are such that they have already caused considerable excitement in the city. Officers occupying important positions on railroads running to this city, have just returned from Grenada. Gen. Hindman is said to have gone to Arkansas with troops of that state, after the evacuation of Corinth.—Gen. Pope had reached Akalotas. Beauregard is still retreating. Price is with him. The Union force in Grenada with less than a thousand men. The rolling stock of the Memphis & Ohio railroad is at Paducah station, this side of Grenada. The post office and Adams' Express are both open here to day. Two steamers leave to day with cotton, sugar and molasses for St. Louis. Numbers of citizens are also leaving for the north.

New Orleans papers to June 1st are received. The Delta openly denounces the friends of secession and backs up Gen. Butler, while the Bee which was previously suppressed by the general for its advocacy of cotton burning, has reappeared with an organ for an explanation, assuring Gen. Butler that it never intended to recommend the destruction of the crops of the southern people. Upon this assurance the commanding general has permitted the issue of the paper.
From the Delta of May 31st we understand that Fort Morgan, being Mobile, surrendered to the mortar fleet on Thursday. The Delta also states that for several days back rumors have been current in this city to the effect that our navy had suffered in a conflict up the river, and that General Williams' brigade had been badly out of the fact are these: On the 26th inst. while the forces under General Williams were descending the Gulf by the rebel battery of four guns, one man was killed and one officer slightly wounded.
The gunboat Rives then opened on the town, and the battery with its camp about a mile and a half in the rear of the town was thereby persuaded to leave. Four companies of the 4th Wisconsin, under Major Boardman, were lauded to destroy the camp. These forces came up as the rebels were leaving—guns and boats were exchanged, and the pursuit discontinued.—At night one of the union troops was wounded and several of the rebel troops were seen to fall. Unfortunately the gallant and accomplished aid-de-camp to General Williams, who volunteered to land with Maj. Boardman's troops, was seriously, and it is feared fatally wounded, while some distance in advance of the advanced guard.

From the Delta, June 1st.
We learn that Col. McKim of the 21st Indiana regiment, sent down another steamer yesterday which he captured in the river. This is the fourth vessel taken by this indefatigable officer. Her name is the Louisiana Belle, and she has a good quantity of sugar, molasses and cotton on board besides smaller wares. Four sick Union soldiers were, about the 9th day of May, fired on by concealed assassins in the town of Houma, two of whom were killed, and the others wounded. Lieut. Col. Keith, of the 21st Maryland, was ordered by General Butler to take a detachment of his regiment and mete out punishment to the offenders. They tried to escape but the order relative to the destruction of their property was carried out.

New York, June 14.
The World's Washington telegram states a rumor that the French Minister, M. Mercier, has engaged passage to Europe in the steamer following; and Lord Lyons.

"St. Johns, N. E., June 14.—
The steamship Bavarian from Southampton 4th, and the China from Liverpool 7th, passed Cape Race this forenoon. Both were boarded by the news yacht of the associated press. The following is the Bavarian's news:

The sick and wounded soldiers in the hospitals here, are treated to the kind and substantial attention from members of congress and others from their respective states.
The senate committee on the judiciary, it is understood, will not recommend the consideration of the bankrupt bill during the present session.
The postoffice department has directed the resumption of mail facilities to Memphis. Another ship load of contrabands will soon leave here for Hayti, making in all about 5,000 during the past month sent there.

Minority Report.

The following is the report of Senator West, to which we briefly alluded a few days since:
The undersigned, of the select committee appointed under senate joint resolution No. 37, submits the following minority report: The resolution appointing said committee is as follows:
"Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That a joint select committee consisting of five, two from the senate, and three from the assembly, be appointed, whose duty it shall be to consider the subject of taxation and take such action thereon as shall by said committee be deemed necessary, in consequence of the late decision of the supreme court."

As I understand the resolution, the chief duty of the committee was to provide, 1st. For adjusting the taxes from 1854 to 1855 inclusive.
2d. If the laws of 1860 excepting and licensing railroads should be held unconstitutional by the court, to provide for a relief of the taxes of 1860 and 1861, and for taxing railroads and plank roads as other property.

The opinions of the court given the 2d inst., remove the necessity for legislation on these subjects.
Such being my view of the duty of the committee, I cannot concur in reporting a bill for a general revision, with material modifications and changes of the assessment laws, and the laws for the collection of taxes; these matters, in my opinion, not having been referred to said committee.

E. A. WEST.

FREMONT'S PRACTICE.—Gen. Fremont is pursuing a most energetic policy with guerrillas and bushwhacker murderers. A rich old secessionist invited two soldiers to his house to dinner. When they reached there, they were fired upon from the yard. One was killed, and the other escaped. Next day a party was sent to the place, and somehow the old villain got the neck and his house and barns were burned. Twelve men who were left behind sick, were on their way to join their regiment in Bleeker's division. Ten of them were killed. This occurred near a village where there was a whiskey distillery, and where the citizens all sympathize with rebels, and where bushwhackers congregated. The party sent to hunt the murderers had orders to catch them if they could, and (so it is reported) burn every building in the village. A foraging party was attacked, seven miles from Franklin, a few days ago, and two men badly wounded. Notice was sent to the farmstead in the vicinity, that if it was known at headquarters that any bushwhackers (the farmers) did not bring the information, this seems to be the only safe method of dealing with the neutrals who never "dun
